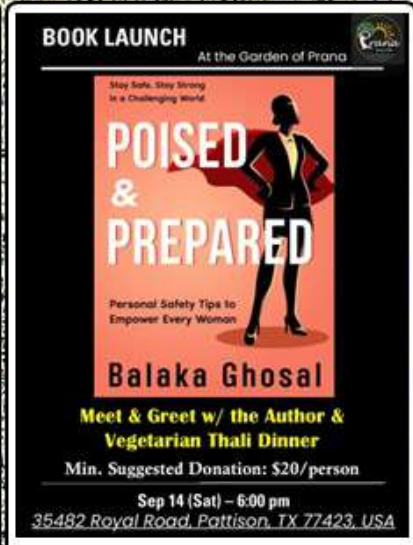
Immersive Session w/ Soulful Music & Poems

Tagore, as the world knows, was the greatest poet laureate of modern India and the mystic philosopher who made the nectar of Upanishads known to the western world. His numerous songs and compositions not only bring about soothing, calming effect on our minds, but also allow one to communicate with the 'Divine' presence in a most deliberate, intimate way that is mesmerizing and enchanting. He feels the supreme consciousness in the neighborhood and the stars alike, in rivers and oceans, in clouds and rains, in family and friends, in all of nature's manifestations.

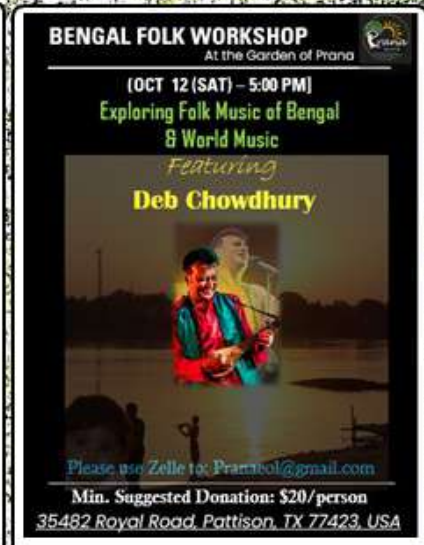
The talented Houstonians and Pramantha Tagore will pay homage to their own personal Tagore their own way, the most fun way...



Book Launch

As a woman, you can choose to stay with your current perceptions of safety or take action to change them. Life can be vulnerable when you least suspect it. You can avoid such incidents by planning ahead. The strongest change begins with the steps we choose for ourselves.

If you care for a wonderful woman, this book could be a life-changing gift for her. If you're a man who cares for your family and community, this book can help you build a scaffold for change. Safety is for everyone!!!



Folk Music Workshop

Deb is a pioneering musician of the modern-day Bengal folk. His last presentation at the Garden of Prana was a phenomenal one with Prana faculty (Biplab & Raja) joining him on stage. But the fun amplified when the audience joined him on many of these songs that are so simple in notes, so close to heart yet so deep in philosophy.

This time Deb will be joined by another Prana faculty Erich Avinger, an incredible guitarist. Prana is happy to be able to host these stars for a day long Folk Fest cum Workshop at the openness of the Garden. DON'T MISS THIS!!
